ORACLE SCHOOL

Synchronicity Timeline

Every single one of you has since you can remember, moments of time where you would look at opportunities, people that have come into your life, things that have no apparent cause, that have brought you together and brought you into a new opportunity that makes no sense whatsoever. Synchronicity is the name for meaningful coincidence when the outer world reflects your inner and you witness the synchronization in the universe when everything reorganizes to support your intention.

Take time to journal and create two lists:

1. All the moments in your life that you can remember when things came together for your benefit
2. Write down some of the moments from Your Never Ending Story (times when you felt stuck or in victim story) and see what good came out of them for your life. If not yet..what could be possible?

Becoming Reading

Ask yourself 4 questions and draw a card for each question.

1. What aspect of my becoming needs the most healing?
2. What aspect of my healing needs the most encouragement?
3. What aspect of my healing needs the most effort?
4. What aspect of my past story is the biggest obstacle to my becoming?

Thoughts to ponder for the next few weeks: Who do I want to become? Who do I want to emulate? What do I not like about myself right now? What do I want to change? If I want to live the life I want, can I do that today? Probably not. If so, who do I need to become in order to live that life fully? What old stories must I let go of? Etc.

Oracle Journal & One Card Daily Anchor Reading

At the start of each day, we want you to start the practice of choosing a Daily Anchor card and writing about it in your new Oracle Journal. This journal should be a new and different book just for your work with the Oracle Cards.

Start by shuffling the cards and asking Spirit, "What is the anchor for today?"

Then ask yourself and journal about the following questions:

1. What is this card telling me about myself?
2. Do I need to course correct?
3. What is this card telling me about my environment?
4. Does it apply to anything else in my life, currently?

This practice is something we want you to start doing every day while you are enrolled in Oracle School. It will begin to build up your relationship with your deck.

(if you registered early you have likely already begun a daily practice in the Oracle School Playground, you can continue that, adding your evening card too, if you feel it resonates).
