

MODULE 6

Akashic Records

VIDEO SUMMARY

Video 3:

Akashic Records

▶ This video is distilled down to information about the Akashic Records that we need for this course to give you the best experience.

▶ Akasha represents the vastness of the collective and beyond, bringing in the concept of the creator of it, the god mind, divine matrix etc.

▶ What's inside the divine matrix? A hall of records, a symbol of its organization, an organizing principle of each one of us, our lives (and past lives) – imagining our thread in the ongoing tapestry of life since the beginning of time. There is a record of us, our experience, our feelings, our thoughts, our actual day-to-day life, things that were important to us and things that weren't.

▶ Imagine it doesn't have anything to do with time in order to see what situations still co-relate to our current state of affairs.

▶ Not going to get a lot about past lives in this course because we're more focused on co-creating our reality NOW.

▶ Why do we want to know about the library? There are records of our experience that our memory can't get to. We want to be able to bypass the actual memory banks of the mind to go into the extraordinary experience of accessing the Akashic Records for the highest good, looking into our own records to see what we might find that may have eluded us until now.

▶ It's like our own personal oracle because it speaks to us about things we might have forgotten.

- ▶ In this course you are also going to learn how to do this for someone else, using the meditation process you'll be taught.
- ▶ You'll be given 3 separate kinds of meditations to be able to access the Akashic Records.
- ▶ Exists essentially but not necessarily as we imagine because our imagination is still limited.
- ▶ Will be using Oracle Cards to solidify the information and content received from accessing the Akashic Records.
- ▶ First meditation 'Opening the Akashic Records' is for opening our personal